

Dear Friends in Christ,

Enclosed is the schedule for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. It's also posted in the auxiliary sacristy and on our parish website: www.stpetersdixon.com.

I've scheduled two Ministers' for the Blood of Christ. The first name listed is considered the primary minister for the celebration. It is the primary's responsibility to make sure the alternate, designated by the second name in (parentheses), is available to serve as a second minister of the cup when needed.

The deacon's role in the distribution of communion is as administer of the cup. Hence, when Mass is celebrated with a deacon present, only the primary is needed to administer the second cup. When Mass is celebrated without a deacon present, both scheduled ministers are needed to administer the two cups.

If you cannot serve at your scheduled time, please find someone to serve in your place.

Peace and Grace,

John
